

SC Pediatric Alliance Welcomes Allisa Hook, MSN, APRN, FNP-C

Board-Certified Family Nurse Practitioner and Former Pediatric ICU Nurse Brings Compassionate, Family-Centered Care to Midlands Families

The South Carolina Pediatric Alliance (SCPA) is pleased to welcome Allisa Hook, MSN, APRN, FNP-C, to its team of pediatric healthcare providers. A board-certified Family Nurse Practitioner, Hook brings extensive pediatric nursing experience and a passion for compassionate, family-centered care to children and families in the Midlands.

Hook earned her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Clemson University before spending seven years as a pediatric intensive care nurse. During her time caring for critically ill children, she developed a deep appreciation for the impact that compassionate, family-centered care can have on children and their families.

She later earned her Master of Science in Nursing from the University of South Carolina, allowing her to pursue her goal of caring for children in the primary care setting. As both a nurse practitioner and a mother, Hook understands the joys, questions, and challenges that come with raising children and is committed to making families feel heard, supported, and confident in their child's care.

"We are excited to welcome Allisa to the South Carolina Pediatric Alliance," stated Mark Delahunty, CEO of the South Carolina Pediatric Alliance. "Her extensive experience caring for children, combined with her compassionate approach and commitment to partnering with families, makes her a wonderful addition to our provider team. We know our patients and their families will appreciate the care and connection she brings to every visit."

Outside of the office, Hook enjoys spending time with her husband and 7-month-old son, practicing yoga, needlepointing, and cheering on the Clemson Tigers.

About the SCPA: In 2015 the pediatricians with Sandhills Pediatrics and Palmetto Pediatrics, two of the largest independent pediatric organizations in South Carolina, joined forces to form what is now the South Carolina Pediatric Alliance (SCPA). The SCPA is a forward-thinking organization, building on decades of trusted care while embracing convenience and innovation to ensure long-term success and growth.
