

SC Pediatric Alliance Announces Addition of Dr. John Adent

Dedicated Pediatrician, Community Mentor, and Father of Four Brings Family-Centered Care to Midlands Patients

The South Carolina Pediatric Alliance (SCPA) is pleased to announce that Dr. John Adent will join its team of pediatric healthcare providers on July 20, 2026. Dr. Adent brings a strong background in pediatric medicine, community involvement, and family-centered care to patients throughout the Midlands.

Dr. Adent earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Georgia in Athens, Georgia, before pursuing his medical degree at Mercer University School of Medicine in Savannah. He then completed his pediatric residency training at Memorial HCA Children's Hospital of Savannah, where he developed a strong foundation in caring for children and families across a wide range of pediatric needs.

Born and raised in Atlanta, Georgia, Dr. Adent has long been passionate about serving children and families. Throughout his academic and medical career, he has invested in mentoring young people through organizations such as YoungLife and church youth ministries, experiences that helped shape his commitment to pediatric care.

“We are excited to welcome Dr. Adent to the South Carolina Pediatric Alliance family,” stated Mark Delahunty, CEO of the South Carolina Pediatric Alliance. “His outstanding clinical training, dedication to children, and commitment to building meaningful relationships with families make him an excellent addition to our provider team and to the Dutch Fork community.”

Dr. Adent and his wife, Regan, have four children and are excited to make the greater Columbia area their home. He enjoys spending time with family, playing golf, and serving in youth ministry.

Patients and families can schedule appointments with Dr. Adent at Sandhills Pediatrics Dutch Fork beginning July 20.

About the SCPA: In 2015 the pediatricians with Sandhills Pediatrics and Palmetto Pediatrics, two of the largest independent pediatric organizations in South Carolina, joined forces to form what is now the South Carolina Pediatric Alliance (SCPA). The SCPA is a forward-thinking organization, building on decades of trusted care while embracing convenience and innovation to ensure long-term success and growth.
